Welcome Pilgrims!

For over 1000 years, pilgrims have walked the medieval pilgrimage routes known as the Camino of Santiago de Compostela, or the Way of St. James. The many routes all end at the Santiago de Compostela Cathedral, the final resting place of St. James the Apostle. Each route differs in length and complexity. We will travel on the Camino Frances (the French Way)- the last remaining 100K of the Camino. This is a spiritually and physically rewarding pilgrimage. Positive energy and a warm sense of community is felt along the Camino, allowing us to meet like-minded people and build new friendships. We walk through some of nature's most beautiful surroundings. Moments of calm and prayerful meditation can awaken the soul. On this pilgrimage, we also have a day excursion to Cape Finisterre, a rock-bound peninsula on the west coast of Galicia, Spain. In Roman times it was the end of the known world. We also see the beauty of Madrid and Lisbon* plus we overnight in Fatima, participating in the rosary/candlelight procession!

If you are able- please join me! Blessings, Fr. Mark

Our Camino will be undertaken on undulating and diverse terrains, Make sure to wear comfortable walking shoes - a flexible, waterproof, lightweight hiking shoe is the best choice. You may also consider a water-resistant sneaker with good support- as a second shoe. The best walking shoe is one that fits you and is comfortable. We suggest bringing two pairs of walking shoes (and wear them in- for a few weeks at least) and bring comfortable flip-flop/sandals for the evening. Socks are also important- midweight Merino wool hiking socks are recommended- and carrying an extra pair on you at all times. Once you book your spot on the Camino- the next step is to start walking everyday (so your body and feet especially get used to it).

CAMINO PILGRIMAGE ITINERARY

Day 2 | Thursday, May 1—Madrid | Sarria Upon arrival in Madrid we board our private motor coach and head into the center of Madrid. We visit the Almudena Cathedral and then enjoy a short driving tour of this spectacular city before we journey to Sarria. Day 3 | Friday, May 2—Portomarin After breakfast, we start our Camino. It will be a peaceful walk through shady oak woods, pretty villages and quiet country roads. The village of Barbedelo has a beautiful Romanesque church that we may have an opportunity to visit. We also pass through Ferreiros. We will walk at our own pace in a contemplative/ joyful way. Remember this is your CAMINO! Walking alone sometimes is recommended. At other times we will walk together or in small groups- often in quiet contemplation, or saying the rosary, praying or even singing! We have a full time Camino guide with us, and our luggage will be transferred by van, from one hotel to the next. You will carry your own water, and any snacks- and our packed lunch. Do you worry, if you ever feel too tired to walk- our bus will trail us and be available as transportation to our next hotel. Dinner and overnight at our hotel in Portomarin. 5 h 15 min, 18km, +50m/ -130m

From the "Mount of Joy" you can see our goal - the Cathedral of Santiago! We experience great joy as we walk into the town of Santiago de Compostela and see the glorious Cathedral of St. James. We kneel in thanksgiving on the stones in front of the Cathedral's square, and give thanks to Christ and St. James for bringing us safely to our destination.
