

Summer Camp 2008

Behavioral Expectations Summary

All participants of “Summer Camp 2008” are expected to conduct themselves in an appropriate manner at all times. This includes, but is not limited to, the following:

- Attend and be on time to all required sessions.
- Keep out of restricted areas; i.e., areas deemed by the leaders as a hazardous condition, girls in boys' rooms and vice versa, etc.
- No alcohol, drugs, or misuse of prescription drugs are permitted under any condition! The use and/or possession of these items are grounds for immediate dismissal.
- Defacement or destruction of property is grounds for immediate dismissal. (Replacement/repair will be at participant's expense.)
- Respect for self, other people's property, leaders, directors, chaperones.
- Wristbands are to be worn at all times.
- Name tags are to be worn at all sessions and meals.
- No whining.
- No changing rooms.
- Use of electronic devices such as cell phones and CD players is prohibited during organized sessions. The Camp and parishes are not responsible if lost or stolen.
- Clothes must be sufficient to conceal undergarments at all times. Clothing that fails to provide adequate coverage of the body, including but not limited to see-through or fishnet fabrics, bare midriffs, tube tops, halter tops, spaghetti strap tops, off-the-shoulder or low-cut tops are prohibited.
- Absolutely no whining!

If at any time it is decided that a participant's behavior is highly inappropriate, and/or that their behavior or attitude creates a danger to themselves and/or others, the participant's parents/guardians will be notified and the participant will be immediately sent home at the expense of his/her parent/guardian.

We, the parent/guardian and participant, have read the above behavioral expectations. It is understood by both parent/guardian and participant that this policy is not meant to cover every foreseeable situation that may arise. It is meant to establish expectations of a code of behavior which is deemed acceptable.
